Proposed fees for Survey Control Information Management System (SCIMS) products and services from 1 July 2007

The Department of Lands is officially registered in the Australian Business Register and also registered for GST. Its ABN is 21 804 973 362

The Survey Control Information Management System (SCIMS) contains coordinates and related information for survey marks established under the direction of the Surveyor General and is maintained for the purposes of cadastral boundary definition, engineering surveys, mapping and other spatial applications. From 1 July 2007, fees for some SCIMS products delivered by LPI will change to bring them into line with service delivery costs and with overall LPI pricing policy.

Current and proposed fees are set out in the table below. The proposed fees reflect the fact that over the counter service delivery is more expensive for LPI to maintain than electronic delivery. Customers are encouraged to access SCIMS products online where they are available at lower rates or free of charge.
